

ST. STANISLAUS B. & M. PARISH

1900 - 1950

The following information was taken from the Church Golden Jubilee Book.

In 1855, St. Rose of Lima Parish, Kankakee, was founded of which the Reverend Louis Cartuyles was the first pastor. This parish enjoys the honor of having been the mother of many other parishes which grew up and about her in the course of her long history. For many years the parish of St. Rose embraced not only all the territory of the city, but Goodrich, Pilot and Irwin, and the pastors from St. Rose attended these growing outlying districts until they could form parishes of their own.

In 1865 the German Catholics became numerous enough by this time to form their own parish, but not until 1873 did they erect their own church, the Immaculate Conception, BVM. Most of the Polish people spoke German as well as their own mother-tongue and decided to join the German Catholics. On the feast of the Immaculate Conception, December 8, 1900, the frame building was destroyed by fire, which necessitated the pastor, Father Sixt, to build the present edifice.

Shortly before this disaster the Polish Catholics became numerous enough to establish their own parish. In the fall of 1900 a group of Polish Catholics gathered at the home of Ignatius Wiatroluk for the purpose of raising funds towards the erection of a church. It was in the month of November, 1900, that the parish of St. Stanislaus, Bishop and Martyr, was founded by the Rev. Maximillian Kotecki under the direction of His Grace the Most Rev. Patrick A. Feehan, D.D. first Archbishop (1880-1902) of the diocese of Chicago. Rev. Kotecki and his "building committee" decided to "erect a church at the corner of First street (now Birch street) and Dearborn avenue, in the Fraser subdivision". The frame two story building was designed by the Kankakee architect, the late C. D. Henry, was to be "40 x 60 feet in size, with a seating capacity of 200 and to cost between $3,000 and $4,000".

During the course of the building, services were held in the basement of St. Rose church. The first baptism of the parish was that of John Kunigowski, born November 7, 1900, and baptized November 18, 1900. The Sacrament of baptism was administered by Father Kotecki. The first marriage of the parish was between Charles Kalczynski and Alexandra Matiulas on January 7, 1901. The first death was that of Stephen Spiewak, April 5, 1905. The parish consisted of twenty-four families and two single men. The following year on July 4, 1901, the church was dedicated by Monsignor J. Lange and Father Paul P. Rhode delivered the sermon.

Father Kotecki served as pastor for one year; having been retired, he was succeeded by Rev. F. Nowacki in December, 1901. Father Nowacki served the parish well until the summer of 1905; he became ill, so that he was unable to perform his parochial duties. He returned to his home in Manistee, Mich., to recuperate. In the New Year he took a turn for the worse and on January 25, 1906, he passed away at the age of 29. Before coming to St. Stanislaus parish, Father Nowacki served as assistant to St. Mary's Church in Chicago.

Rev. E. A. Kowalewski was assigned to replace Father Nowacki. Father Kowalewski labored in the parish for five years when he was assigned to St. Mary Magdalene Church in Chicago. In June, 1910, Rev. F. G. Ostrowski was offered the parish. During Father Ostrowski's pastorate the Sisters of the Holy Family of Nazareth were given charge of the parochial school. Previous to this time classes were held in the home of Isadore Link on North Seventh Ave. and classes were conducted by laymen, some of them being Paul Szypniewski, Martha Zolinski and Walter Maniszewski.

In 1912 Father Ostrowski was assigned to the Holy Rosary Parish in Chicago, and Rev. F. Feldheim was assigned to St. Stanislaus church. Father Feldheim served only a short six months when he was assigned to Ascension Church in Evanston, Illinois. He was replaced by Rev. A. Koytek in that same year.

Father Koytek served the parish two years, when in 1914 he was retired and Rev. B. J. Orlemanski was given charge of St. Stanislaus parish. It was Father Orlemanski who saw the need of a convent for the sisters, for at this time they occupied two rooms on the first floor of the church. In 1916 Father Orlemanski purchased the home of Mr. Ignatius Kocinski, directly north of the church, to be used as a convent for the sisters. He also enlarged the sanctuary, erected a new altar through the generous offering of the Altar and Rosary Society and had the church decorated. Father Orlemanski was a tireless worker. During the great Spanish Influenza epidemic of 1918, Father Orlemanski was stricken and within a week he passed away, on October 17, 1918, at the age of 35. He was born in Erie, PA, and was ordained in Chicago.

On October 30, 1918, Rev. B. K. Szudzinski was offered the charge of St. Stanislaus parish. During Father Szudzinski's pastorate the entrance to the church was altered in order to enlarge the school rooms. Father Szudzinski served the parish five years when he was assigned to St. Valentine's Church in Cicero, IL. In 1923 Rev. Paul Sabota succeeded Father Szudzinski. Father Sabota served the parish only a short time. In 1925 he was assigned to St. Tecla Parish, Norwood Park, IL.

Father Sabota was succeeded by Rev. John Mencikowski. Father Mencikowski served the parish six years, when due to ill health he was relieved of his parish duties and assigned to St. Mary's Hospital, Kankakee, as chaplain.

In 1931 Rev. Stanislaus Koralewski was assigned to St. Stanislaus parish. Father Koralewski was pastor of the parish for the longest period of time in the history of the parish, having served twelve years. It was during his pastorate that the annual Homecomings were instituted. Many of these Homecomings were held on the campus of St. Viator College, Bourbonnais. On June 16, 1943, Father Koralewski passed away after a brief illness. Father Koralewski, a native of Posen, Poland, came to the United States at the age of 3, was educated in St. Adalbert's parochial school, St. Stanislaus College, Chicago, and St. Francis seminary, St. Francis, WI. In July, 1943, the Most Rev. Samuel A. Stritch appointed Rev. F. C. Scieszka to the parish. Father Scieszka has established the first catholic Kindergarten in the city. In the summer of 1950 Father Scieszka launched a great venture by announcing his intention of publishing a historical account of the St. Stanislaus parish by way of celebrating the Golden Jubilee of the parish.
