

2015 Summer Conference

Presented by: McHenry County Illinois Genealogical Society

Saturday 11 July 2015 at McHenry County College, 8900 Route 14, Crystal Lake, Illinois

Debbie Parker Wayne, CG, CGL*, is a full-time board-certified genealogist and genealogical lecturer experienced using DNA analysis, as well as more traditional techniques, for genealogical research. Her DNA research focuses on client projects and on research into her own family project which includes Y-DNA, mtDNA, X-DNA, and autosomal DNA studies. Her traditional research focuses on Texas, the Southwest, and the Southern U.S. She has performed research for several genealogical television series in the U.S. and Canada. She coordinates and teaches week-long, comprehensive, interactive genetic genealogy courses at SLIG and GRIP teaching how to interpret and apply DNA test results to genealogical research. See <http://debbiewayne.com/> for more information.

Thomas MacEntee has 25 years of experience in the information technology field which he uses to improve genealogical research, and to interact with others in the family history community. Mr. MacEntee now shares his knowledge of technology and experience as a genealogist with others through various forms of social media and speaking engagements. Through his business High-Definition Genealogy, he provides consulting services in the genealogy industry covering such areas as market research, education, technology and more. As the creator of GeneaBloggers.com, Thomas has organized and engaged a community of over 2,800 bloggers to document their own journeys in the search for ancestors.

Greg Phelps of Colchester, Illinois, is a Library Specialist at the Malpass Library on the campus of Western Illinois University in Macomb. Greg currently serves as president of the Scott's Cemetery Association of McDonough County, and is active in the preservation of the over 100-year history of the church and cemetery. Scott's Cemetery is where Greg first became interested in cemeteries and their symbols. His grandmother Lois lived close to the cemetery, and they spent many hours walking the grounds together. As he grew up, Greg began to research some of the symbols he had witnessed in the cemetery. His research has expanded and organized into the presentation "Dead Men's Tales: Cemetery Symbols and their meaning".

Jane Haldeman's passion for genealogy began in 8th grade with a school assignment. Her other passion is technology which lead her into theater as a stagehand. Today she has blended her love of family history and technology and shares that love with others. She is owner of "It's Relative," www.itsrelative.net; a former president of the Illinois State Genealogical Society (2012-2014), and Fox Valley Genealogical Society (2010-2013). Jane lives in the suburbs of Chicago, and her lectures focus on technology as applied to genealogical research.

Craig Pfannkuche is a retired high school history teacher, and president of Memory Trail Research, Inc. since 1993. Craig has been the Genealogical Archivist for the Chicago and Northwestern Railroad Historical Society since 1984, and is on the Board of Directors of the Chicago Genealogical Society. He has presented numerous workshops in history, genealogical and historical research, and archaeological techniques.

Ray Johnson is a former criminal investigator from DuPage County Illinois and has almost 30 years of genealogical experience. After leaving law enforcement he started Johnson Research Services <http://www.historycop.com/>. Ray conducts research for family historians, attorneys, governmental agencies, television production companies and other authors. He is the author of two books; Chicago's Haunt Detective, 2011 <http://www.hauntdetective.com/> and Chicago History – The Stranger Side, 2014.

Maureen Brady is a former school librarian and computer educator. She has over 25 years' experience with family history research, is a professional genealogist, and owner of Bare Roots Genealogical Services. Maureen has made numerous presentations to Illinois and Wisconsin genealogical societies, libraries, conferences, and workshops, as well as presenting at the 2002 National Genealogical Society Conference. Ms. Brady is co-director of the Crystal Lake (Illinois) Family History Center and is a member of many genealogical and family history societies in the U.S. and Scotland.
