GRAVE MARKERS

This is a new addition to the The-A-Ki-Ki. Photographs of grave markers dating prior to 1900 will be run in each quarterly. The markers below are from the DeSein Cemetery.

NORTON

Taken from The Kankakee Gazette, November 4, 1875.

The epizootic is with us again, but not so bad as three years ago, as yet: but it makes it bad for those who have much grain to haul to market.

We had a very heavy wind and rainstorm last night, which winds up threshing and hauling off grain for a few days again.

We hear of several who have picked corn near Gardner. The grain is molding and souring in the crib. But little has been picked here as yet; all seem to be afraid it is not dry enough.

Rev. Mr. Snyder is on this circuit preaching for the Wesleyan Methodists. Rev. Mr. Woodard is preaching for the M. E. church for this conference year - both are well liked and are earnest workers.

The M.E. society is building a parsonage at Eldridgeville, as that is about the centre of the charge. The old parsonage on Horse Creek will be sold.

Mr. Cornwell, father of B. L. Cornwell, is visiting friends in town.

Mrs. Laws, from Kansas, daughter of W. F. Hendrix, is visiting friends in this vicinity.

Enoch Coles has removed his shop from Eldridgeville back home again. We expect to see that shop on wheels yet.

Mr. Pratt's house is nearly complete. Mr. Bidelow, of Salina, is doing the plastering. Mr. P. may well feel proud of the appearance of his house.

Mr. Norton has disposed of his farm of 160 acres to Mr. Ballou, of Northville, LaSalle county, for $28 per acre. This is the cheapest transfer of property we have heard of for some time.

The season for lectures and panoramas has arrived. Our school directors will soon think these things a nuisance.

The sausage and butter trade does not seem to give general satisfaction. We would say in relation to the latter that we've been requested to smooth the thing over or apologize. Now we don't want to hurt any one's feelings in any way, and as for an apology, we never was worth a cent at making one. We always blundered into something to make matters worse; besides it would hardly be using our informants right to change the thing without their request.

We must close or the editor will say we are using too much gas to fill out allotted space.

THE FOURTEEN ORPHANS

Taken from The Kankakee Gazette, December 9, 1875.

According to announcements made in these columns, a company of orphan children, consisting of fourteen boys, from twelve to sixteen years of age, arrived at the Exchange last week Thursday and were visited by hundreds of people during the day. The greater portion went from curiosity, while quite a number meant business and went for the purpose of having an orphan all to themselves - to love, to cherish, to feed and imbue with intelligence. The latter qualification was unquestionably a minus quantity with the majority of the kids. They looked, many of them, as though they had been spirited away from the institution for the feeble-minded at Jacksonville. However, with a home in which parental care and attention will be bestowed they will improve wonderfully. The children were all quite readily disposed of except one boy who looked as though he was aching to cut up some deviltry; from him the good people held aloof for some time, but he was finally checked off to a willing farmer. The children were all apprenticed to farmers, by the way, and here is a list of the various assignments:

James Sterling, Bourbonnais, took Samuel Sinclair, Harvey Kinkaid, Rockville, took John Conklin. Andrew Sheffler, Rockville, took James Conklin. Joseph E. Shreffler, Limestone, took Paul Gyse. Thomas Parker, Manteno, took Thomas Paddock. G. W. Archambault, St. Anne, took Chas. Paddock. Chas. Sheffler. Rockville, took George Hand. J. E. Labrie, Jr., Sumner, took Frank Richards. James Bissett, Yellowhead, took John L. Bowley. James A. Perry, Wilmington, took Thomas Hoagland. Anthony Carnavan, Sumner, took Charles Pierce. Mrs. Mary A. Grimes, Rockville, took Fred Thumm. J. S. Ingalls, Aroma, took Charles Thumm. Daniel J. White, Essex. took George Myers.

The boys were taken on two week's trial, at the expiration of which time, December 16, Mr. Wright will return for the purpose of indenturing all with whom the employers are satisfied.

KVGS PUBLICATION CORECTIONS

Jean LaGue writes that her ancestor, J. B. LaGue & Family, are incorrectly listed in the 1860 Census as 'Layne (Bourbonnais Twp. Family 2493). In the Maternity BVM Death Record on page 34, the spouse of Francois Demers is Rebecca Suprenant. She married him in St. Geo. Canada 24 June 1851. Rebecca returned to Canada and remarried on 28 Nov. 1854 to Moise Gervais (at St. Geo. Canada). Also, Jean writes that on page 78, under Ponton, Anastasia is listed as the wife of Alex Toutret. Fran the St. Geo. Canada Marriage Book, Anastasie Ponton married Alexis Poutre 15 Oct. 1850. If this is the same couple, Anastasie would have to be more than 23 when she died in 1884.

Dave King writes that Family #1728 in the 1860 Census should be BALTHAZOR Instead of Balgone (Index Page 6) and Family #2667 & 2670 should be RANTZ instead of Bantz.

March Meeting

The March Annual Meeting was a noon luncheon at the Redwood Inn.

We have ten copies of Ardis Boone's "St. Anne Catholic Church Marriage Records 1872-1982" which will be sold at a cost of $16 per book.

A discussion was held regarding obtaining local church records and the formation of a Church Committee was suggested. Anyone Interested in working on this committee should contact President Burden.

A discussion was held on the Maternity Cemetery records, and Marcia Stang will write to the Joliet Dioese requesting access to the records for the cemetery book.

A surname index And forms to be filled out by everyone visiting from out of town was discussed. It would be helpful if the society could provide visitors with a form they could fill out stating the surnames of ancestors they are researching.

Discussion was held on changing the meeting time from 1 p.m. to 10 a.m. on the first Saturday of each month. The society will be surveyed to see if this time would be preferable.

President Burden showed the members two new Indexes recently purchased from the Ft. Wayne Library. These indexes contain a listing of all articles published for 1986, 1987 and 1988 of quarterlies received by the Ft. Wayne Library.
